The Ballad of ROBBING HOOD

In Merrie Olde England, the folks were dismayed,
For Richard the King had gone off on a Crusade.
He'd left his cruel brother in charge of the land,
And John was a tyrant who ruled with cruel hand.

But one man stood up to the wicked King,
And of his deeds we now shall sing—
Then Robbing Hood, a merry crew,
From lords and ladies their jewels he took.

And also their pants, dresses and vests,
The hats from their heads and the shirts from their chests.
He took from the rich to give to the poor,
Who lived in the forest and up on the moor.

For years he'd pursued his robbing career,
But now he was old and his ending drew near.
Maid Marian put his bow in his hand,
Said Rob: "Bury me where this arrow doth land!"

But the arrow flew high, and in falling it stayed
Noble King Richard (just back from a Crusade).

King John heard the news as he dined in his hall,
And said: "That old Hood ain't so bad after all!"

Old Robbing banded up, and felt a lot better,
When a messenger came to him bearing a letter.
The letter from John offered Robbing a job,
With plenty of opportunities to steal and to rob.

Now Rob's not an outlaw, and he can relax,
He's taken a job helping John collect tax.
It gives him security, comfort and wealth,
As he robs from the poor to give to himself.

AFTER ALL, I'VE EARNED PLENTY ABOUT CRIME.

SHE THREW HER BIG SOFT EYES ACROSS THE ROOM AT ME.

SHE WAS REALLY GOING TO PIECES.

ONE MORNING, A REAL HOT DOLL WALKED INTO MY OFFICE.

SUDDENLY, SHE BURST INTO A FLOOD OF TEARS.

WHEN, UNEXPECTEDLY, A BIG GORILLA WITH A MACHINE GUN BURST IN.

I GAVE HIM A SLUG IN THE MOUTH.

THEN I PULLED OUT MY GUN, AND LET HIM HAVE IT.

...AND BLEW HIM AWAY!

THE DOLL EXPLAINED THAT SHE'D COME FOR MY HELP, TO GET THE HIT MAN OFF HER TAIL, AND I'D SUCCEEDED!

SHE WAS SO GRATEFUL, SHE GAVE ME A MILLION SMACKERS (AND LOTS OF MONEY).

...WHICH IS HOW I ENDED UP HERE, RICH AND ON HOLIDAY!

ACTUALLY, I WON THIS HOLIDAY IN AN INTERNATIONAL LARS' CLUTY CONTEST, BUT DON'T LET ON, READERS!
